The cultural phenomenon TOMMY €A$H starts his American tour today in Los Angeles in support of his HIGH FASHION EP, including the A. G. Cook -produced “High Fashion,” “Beat Rock” and “Hottie” which are produced by UMRU, and the IC3PEAK produced “Nostramo.” Tour tickets are available now here.

Besides his brand new EP, TOMMY CASH just entered the simply unforgettable earworm “Espresso Macchiato” into the Eurovision Song Contest race as the Estonian entry. With the lyrics “Life is like spaghetti, it’s hard until you make it...” the song will immediately stay by your side.

TOMMY €A$H is known for his bold visuals and unique sounds. Not only a rapper, he is an accomplished visual artist, and fashion icon, bringing together post-Soviet aesthetics and global trends through a mix of raw tenderness and twisted humor.

HIGH FASHION embarks on a journey through four distinct eras, each infused with Tommy’s signature irony and experimental flair. Tommy describes the EP as a retrospective voyage: “These are a lot of the sounds I loved growing up and that have shaped me.” He originally considered naming the EP Swag, a term he views as “dated and old,” yet notes, “With the quick fashion/trend cycles, this word becomes relevant, just like these styles, again and again.”

The HIGH FASHION EP is the follow-up release to the NSFW “UNTZ UNTZ” (aka Sex Olympics) music video co-directed with Alina Pasok, which he released in early August.

TOMMY €A$H has always been an artist in huge demand, working with some of the biggest and most cutting-edge producers, musicians, and fashion designers, including Rick Owens, Maison Margiela, Diplo, Boys Noize, A. G. Cook, Danny L Harle, Charli XCX, 100 Gecs, Modeselektor, Salvatore Ganacci, Caroline Polachek, $uicide Boy$ etc. All the while, he has always been and still is an independent artist with full creative control.

His videos have continuously seen international success, with a live rendition of the single “Little Molly” boosting over 17 million views on YouTube alone. After blowing up the Estonian entertainment scene, Tommy’s success has quickly transcended his home country and he’s known for his twisted sense of humor and unique creative output across the globe. In 2022 he hit the US and EU with his long-awaited headline World Tour where he presented the album ¥€$ and EP MONEYSUTRA in about 50 cities as a special guest of Oliver Tree. He’s known to perform at the biggest festivals, such as Glastonbury, Sziget and Roskilde.
