RECONCILER RELEASE NEW "THREE SONGS" EP VIA SMARTPUNK RECORDS— LISTEN

Reconciler's new EP "Three Songs" might be short but it packs a mighty punch of punk. The band, previously featured on Kerrang!, Idioteq, and more continues to deliver bold lyrical themes set to visceral soundtracks as this EP marks the next phase of their musical evolution.

Merchandise, vinyl, and other products for the EP release are available here.

The band's vocalist Joseph Lazzari explains, "Three Songs offers a heavier, more visceral side of Reconciler's heart-on-sleeve approach that contemplates grappling with mental health as the credits roll on the American Dream."

ABOUT RECONCILER:

Reconciler is a band from Atlanta, GA first amplified in the summer of 2016. Harkening to a sound alternately Southeast and East Bay, they released their debut LP, Set Us Free, in February of 2019 to critical acclaim. A split 7-inch with the legendary Gainesville outfit, Ship Thieves followed in January of 2021. With a solidified new lineup and a refined focus, Reconciler went to work completing their sophomore album, Art For Our Sake, released on Smartpunk Records in the U.S. and Gunner Records in Europe in February of 2024. The band followed the release with their first tour of Europe and The U.K. Art For Our Sake's singles were featured on editorial playlists, and widely played on college radio. The album's title track became the most-played song on Sirius XM's Faction Punk station for several months. On March 7th, 2025, Reconciler will release a limited 7-inch, Three Songs, ahead of a southern tour and SXSW appearance. Three Songs offers a heavier, more visceral side of Reconciler's heart-on-sleeve approach.

ABOUT SMARTPUNK RECORDS:

Smartpunk has been a recognizable name in the scene for a long time (remember that sponsored Warped Tour stage?!). After exchanging several hands and countless ideas of what it could and should be, they decided to start a record label in 2016 with the main idea of focusing solely on reissuing records that have been out of print or never on vinyl. After all, they're a label of vinyl dorks themselves! After releasing Set Your Goals' "Mutiny" and Gameface's "Good," they started to venture into signing newer bands. They actively balance in between many worlds—putting out amazing music from friends and bands that rock, reissuing older titles, and partnering with other incredible labels in our scene and doing exclusive color variants of their releases.

"Since forming the record label, Smartpunk Records has released timeless albums such as Less Than Jake's Anthem, Nominee's Lowlife, RIVALS' Sad Looks Pretty on Me, Virginity's POPMORTEM, and melodic skate punkers The Swellers' My Everest."
