A euphoric ode to relentless passion, "Running to You" is another instant classic from a band firing on all cylinders. Once again, the band has teamed up with acclaimed director Patric Ullaeus (Europe, Arch Enemy, Children of Bodom) to deliver a music video that perfectly captures the relentless, in-your-face, '80s metal fury that's as raw and unapologetic as only H.E.A.T can deliver.

With Welcome to the Future set for release on April 25 via earMUSIC, the album is already receiving high praise.

International music press reviews have given the album a perfect 10/10, with the album being called H.E.A.T.'s "strongest album to date" (Hardline), described as "fresh as never before" (Classic Rock), and reassuring the world that "the future of rock music is in safe hands" (Powerplay).

Welcome to the Future is available for pre-order now in multiple formats: CD Jewelcase, black vinyl, limited-edition Neon Orange vinyl, and digital.
