THE GOBLINS OF METAL, NEKROGOBLIKON, UNLEASH "THE GOBLIKON DOUBLE FEATURE" WITH "SHOW ME YOUR GOBLIN" + "FIEND"

ANNOUNCE THE "SHOW ME YOUR GOBLIN" TOUR

"Whenever listening to them, there is no mistake, it's Nekrogoblikon" —Metal Injection

"Nekrogoblikon has mastered the balance between silly subject matter and serious musical chops" — New Noise Magazine

"Blazingly fast folk-metal and melodeath that deserves a wide audience" — No Clean Singing

"Nekrogoblikon proves how creativity can exist in music" — MXDWN

Whether or not they are the "Best Goblin Metal Band" or the ONLY "Goblin Metal Band" is irrelevant. What does matter is that while John Goblikon, the rambunctious host of the Right Now Podcast, is the hideous face behind the sung vocals, the screaming is actually being masterfully delivered by Dickie Allen (also of Infant Annihilator).

Fun and slimy, the crew behind NEKROGOBLIKON have tapped into '80s culture of "creature features" with their presentation of their own double feature with two brand new music videos: "Show Me Your Goblin" and "Fiend," directed by Brandon Dermer, whose extensive resume includes mainstays Blink-182 and Panic! At The Disco. The songs were produced, engineered, and mixed by Jason Suecof (Job For a Cowboy, The Black Dahlia Murder, Whitechapel).

Watch "Show Me Your Goblin" and Fiend" here.

Melodic death metal of monstrous proportions, NEKROGOBLIKON will be taking their show on the road for the "Show Me Your Goblin" Tour with special guests Revocation, Ov Sulfur, BRAT, and Exmortus. Bringing the party to death metal, their sound is distinguished, complete with experienced instrumental arrangements and choruses that are as melodious as they are hypnotically explosive.

Hand to Gob, there is no experience like walking into your city's finest venue and witnessing the commanding presence of the one and only John Goblikon. NEKROGOBLIKON undoubtedly fill the gap between ironic, tongue-and-cheek and impressive, calculated musicianship.

Catch them on the road this May and June throughout the U.S.
