

Following the release of their shimmering single "By Your Side,"—hailed by EARMILK as "a catchy slice of their signature synth-pop"— pop duo Paperwhite, the project of siblings Katie (singer/songwriter) and Ben Marshall (producer/songwriter), return with "By Your Side \(Adam Weiss Remix\)."

Brooklyn-based composer and producer Adam Weiss brings his signature blend of ambient, electronic, and classical influences to Paperwhite's latest dreamy single. Known for his evocative, cinematic style, Weiss has scored films such as McVeigh and Skin Can Breathe and composed music for Apple, IBM, Google, and Samsung ad campaigns. His music has also appeared in Mountain Dew's 'The Shining' Super Bowl ad, CBS's Emmy-nominated Pride campaign, and the critically acclaimed podcast This American Life. With his remix of "By Your Side," Weiss elevates Paperwhite's lush synth-pop sound, weaving in atmospheric textures to transform the track into a hypnotic, cinematic experience.

Since making their debut over a decade ago, Paperwhite have captivated fans and tastemakers alike, earning praise from Billboard, Vice, and BuzzFeed, and securing spots on numerous Spotify editorial playlists. The New York-based duo quickly became blogosphere favorites, twice earning the Hype Machine title of Most Blogged Artist. Beyond their online acclaim, they've shared the stage with Oh Wonder, SOFI TUKKER, and Great Good Fine Ok, solidifying their place as one of indie pop's most beloved acts.

After a brief hiatus, Paperwhite re-emerged in late 2024 with their new single "Unfold," marking the beginning of an exciting new chapter. Their forthcoming EP, due out this Spring, stays true to their signature dreamy, synth-driven pop while incorporating natural textures and a cinematic depth. Grounded in themes of self-discovery and emotive storytelling, Paperwhite are crafting a sonic world that welcomes both longtime fans and new listeners alike.
