The Frisco, Texas native wrote or co-wrote every song on One Night in Dallas, reflecting his deep connection to the music he creates. "It's been a lot of hard work, and so many talented people helped make this collection of songs come alive,” says Roberson. “I feel really confident in this album. It’s rooted in country music, but each song has its own flavor. There’s something for everyone—love songs, lost love songs, and songs about having fun. It covers so many emotions, and I can’t wait for everyone to hear it.”

In anticipation of the album's release, Roberson will drop his self-penned single, “End It With Whiskey,” on April 11. This song came together in a surprising burst of inspiration. “I was in Nashville, in my hotel room alone and bored,” Roberson explains. “About 30 minutes before I was about to go to bed, I was playing on my guitar and pulled a song title from my phone’s notes. I started writing, and the song flowed from my head and onto the strings. I love the hook of this song, and I’m hoping everyone likes it as much as I do.”

To celebrate the release of One Night In Dallas, Roberson is hosting an exclusive, invite-only album release party on May 9 at the Nack Theater. Industry insiders and special guests will get an exclusive first listen to the album, paired with a special live performance from Roberson.

In addition to the excitement surrounding his album, Roberson's radio debut single, “Somewhere in Texas,” is climbing the charts. Currently sitting at #7 on the Texas Radio Regional Report chart, the song is quickly gaining traction and drawing attention across the state. Roberson's music is resonating with fans and critics alike, further proving his potential to make a major mark on the country music scene.

Roberson’s global presence is growing rapidly. With over 3.7 million streams on Spotify, boosted by major playlists like All New Country Music, Fresh Finds Country, Next from Nashville, and Texas Country Now, he is gaining recognition both regionally and internationally. His dedicated fanbase continues to grow, and his music has earned him a spot among the Top 500 country music artists globally and the Top 20K music artists worldwide (Chartmetrics).
